

No Shame. No Blame. No Names.

Safe Haven
Baby Boxes

There is a safe place for your newborn.

If you are pregnant and unable to keep your baby after it's born, you may legally hand your unharmed baby, up to 30 days old, to a safe haven location. Your baby will be given medical care and be adopted and loved by a loving family.

You don't have to give your name or any other information to anyone as this is completely anonymous. You will not be breaking any laws. But, you will be giving your baby the gift of life.

For confidential information about your options please call our Safe Haven crisis hotline please call:
